Latest news:

- Rare Disease Day 2026: Discover Horizon Europe projects advancing research and innovation for rare diseases Rare diseases affect over 300 million people worldwide, yet only 6% currently have an approved treatment option. To address this challenge, projects funded under the Horizon Europe 'Health' programme conduct research to develop much-needed treatments. Turning cutting-edge science into tangible benefits
The European Rare Diseases Research Alliance (ERDERA) is a Horizon Europe partnership uniting more than 170 public and private organisations across 37 countries, focused on improving prevention, diagnosis and treatment for the 30 million Europeans living with a rare disease.
